Tips For Summer Parties

Summer is the season when it's "in" to do your party-giving "out." Today, whatever the occasion, modern ingenuity has devised conveniences that pave the way to fuss-free outdoor entertaining.

The home freezer, for instance, lets you tailor steaks or hamburgers to portion-size far ahead of backyard barbecue time to avoid last-minute scullery work and serving-line stack-ups. Another way to keep the line moving is by using the 12-cup Norelco coffee maker and its companion Plus 12 serving unit that holds another dozen cups at perfect serving temperature. That generous capacity guarantees a steady flow of hot, full-flavored coffee to your lawn-party or dining-terrace guests.

But then, some like it cold, so try this: For an iced brew, freeze a few trays of coffee cubes in advance. Then when the hot coffee is poured over the ice, the melting cubes won't dilute the drink. It's another way to make outdoor living easy in summertime.

The GOSPEL NEWS

GOSPEL COUNTER-POINT By Sister Anna Lundy Lewis

Newark - Elizabeth - Jersey City - Paterson - Trenton - Orange - E. Orange - Atlantic

The Prodigal Sons Album, featuring Johnny Holmes on the Richburg Label, is fast getting to the top of best sellers. it is entitled 'Any How'. The sensational Prodigal Sons of Washington, D.C., one of the most promising and traditional gospel groups of our time was organized in the early spring of 1968 by Tommie Singleton. Since then the group has made numerous TV and radio appearances. The spirit filled message through their songs reaches both young and old.

Members of the group today consist of Johnnie Holms, featured lead singer who has performed with such national artists as the Harmonizing Four, Swan Silvertones, Edna Galmon Cooke and the Original Five Blind Boys of Alabama; Albert Robinson, group manager, tenor and lead; Johnnie Carwell, Baritone; Tommie Singleton, first tenor and lead, Jesse Hargrove, lead guitarist; Tony Lane, Bass guitarist; Robert Graham, drummer. These seven men comprise The Sensational Prodigal Sons.

This group, which has traveled extensively throughout the United States singing their soulful and heart-warming songs is soon to appear in concerts in Long Island and in Newark. The Prodigal Sons are currently heard in this area over WBNX on Radio on Joe Soriano's "Gospel Thru' the Nite" each Sunday and Monday morning.

GOSPEL FLASH

Joe Soriano of WBNX'S "Gospel Thru' The Nite" reports that listener requests for Dorothy Love Coates' "Strange Man" on the Richburg label have broken all records. On the flip side is "Do The Best You Can", which is likewise enjoying tremendous popularity. Dorothy Love Coates, who is being billed as the world's greatest gospel singer and song writer, is the only gospel singer in recent years who has approached the superb artistry of the late Mahalia Jackson. Miss Coates has appeared in Carnegie Hall, Madison Square Garden and on national television.
